Lord Marks

Contribution to 'The Death of Lord Marks', Jewish Observer and Middle East Review, 11 December 1964, 37

He was a good man in every way. His kindness, simplicity, generosity and courage made him loved by everyone. I have never heard the slightest disparagement of him from any human being. He was a passionate Zionist and a passionate British patriot and did an unbelievable amount of good in both countries. The combination of genius and a kind and responsive heart is rarely found anywhere. I mourn him deeply.
